

ROBERT ROBINSON

“Robert Robinson is a volcanic talent who absolutely knocks an audience on its heels.”

Milwaukee Journal Sentinel – Milwaukee, WI

“His voice was glorious, steeped with emotion...and many in the audience couldn't stop a few tears from rolling. When he finished, the audience gave him a truly rousing standing ovation.”

Deseret News - Salt Lake City, UT

“[Robert] is a beloved institution. The mere mention of his name brings to mind state-of-the-art excellence in sheer, unsurpassed vocal prowess.”

Insight News – Minneapolis, MN

“Finally, it was Robinson's turn to steal the show again....”

The Post-Bulletin - Rochester, MN

“His first Christmas show as a headliner was the perfect blend of sentiments of the season, personality (especially his sense of humor) and musicality.”

Star Tribune - Minneapolis, MN

“A voice big enough to nail even back-row listeners to their seats.”

Argus Leader – Sioux Falls, SD

“The two or three special occasions when he's delivered the national anthem at Wolves games have been some of the precious few highlights of their season.”

City Pages – Minneapolis and Saint Paul, MN

“He is the star, producer, creative director, and promoter of his own holiday tour.”

Star Tribune - Minneapolis, MN

“Every time Robinson has played Milwaukee...he has received a standing ovation.”

Milwaukee Journal Sentinel – Milwaukee, WI

“Robert joined the tour in 1992, and the show would never be the same. He had the gift to bring people to tears and to their feet, night after night. His voice literally stopped the show with applause every night in every city.”

Lorie Line – nationally celebrated pianist

One of the “Ten Best Holiday Shows.”

Metro Magazine - Minnesota (Metropolitan)

“The Pavarotti of gospel.”

Star Tribune - Minneapolis, MN